

FINN HOLM-OLSEN
DIRECTOR OF TRADE PROMOTION & AGOA
USAID EAST AFRICA TRADE AND INVESTMENT HUB

Finn Holm-Olsen is an international trade expert with 20+ years of professional experience working in Africa. During this time, he has designed and managed enterprise development and capacity building programs, advanced U.S. trade policy interests in Africa, and promoted U.S.-African business ties.

He has lived and worked in Kenya for the past 12 year, during which time he has managed the AGOA portfolio for 3 consecutive USAID Trade Hub projects. He currently serves as the Director of Trade Promotion & AGOA at the USAID East Africa Trade and Investment Hub, the flagship project under the Presidential Trade Africa initiative implemented by DAI. Mr. Holm-Olsen previously served as the Director of the East Africa Trade Hub at COMPETE, a USAID project implemented by Chemonics Inc.; and as the Regional AGOA Advisor at the East and Central Africa Global Competitiveness Hub, a USAID project implemented by BearingPoint, Inc.